

Calimar s.r.l. was born in the beginning of the nineteenth centuries, when Maria Linfozzi, young and ambitious business women, started using straw to create her first hats. After the war, Maria was driven by a very strong will, to rebuild and grow the firm. Calimar, is a name which is so dear to the third generation who is keeping alive Marias dream.

Now the company styles and produces all types of knitwear starting from scarfs, hats, ponchos, dresses, and so on, working in this field from more than thirty years now. All our products are Made Italy, styled internally by a team of stylist which work constantly to provide us new blends of yarns to enrich every single creation.

Our strength come also by our efficient machines, on which we rely to offer our clients a production which is guarantying the quality, the elegance and refinement of the Made in Italy product. Our attention to the trends and the evolution of the market leads to a constant search for new fabrics and yarns, in order to develop new products which encounter the needs of our consumers.

Currently cooperating with known Italian and international brands, for which we design and create entire collections. From Moschino to Alviero Martini, Calvin Klain, but mostly we recall the cooperation with QVC USA and QVC Germany back in the year 2005 .

La dolce Vita

A brand dedicated for those women with passion for beautiful knitwear made with care.

Our stylists grasp the trend of the moment and immediately translate them into amazing creation. The brand was born with the intention of creating a solar, audacious at the same time sensual line, by proposing collections which could meet the needs of these women who know what they want in life and are constantly running out of time. Therefore, we make every single product meeting the needs of our contemporary ladies which want to look good all day long.

The yarns used to create each piece, are simply one of the best in Italy, which makes a garment last over and over the years without losing its charm.

Our main goal is, to bring an emotion into each and every single woman of each age, by wearing our creation totally Made in Italy.
